

Etiwanda's Australian Record Price!

The Annual Etiwanda Production sale held last Friday the 25th of February was another great success, with a new Australian record price set for crossbred White Dorper commercial ewes for $380.00/head for a pen of 7 month old, un-joined, F4 & F5 ewe lambs. The superb pen of ewes was offered by the Mosely Family of Etiwanda and was quickly snapped up by new client, TEPA Pty Ltd, through Jackson Livestock, Guyra. A second pen of the same ewes went for a similarly impressive price of $330.00/head to Leanne Leihn of Boorowa.

The Etiwanda Rangeland Ready White Dorper ram sale was also supported strongly by return clients and a very pleasing crowd of new bidders on site. A crowd of about 70 attended the sale, with 28 bidders on Auctionsplus.

The 73, 7 month old, LambPlan recorded White Dorper rams averaged $1780.00/head, up $385.00 on last year's sale, and buyers travelled from Tilpa, Bourke, Guyra, Dubbo, Nyngan, Cobar, Hillston, Tottenham, Cunnamulla and Eulo in QLD, to access the Etiwanda genetics. The top priced ram sold to James Mead of Warwick in QLD for $2900.00, a beautiful clean coated ram with a balanced set of ASBV's.

The 12 flock rams, sold in pens of 2, averaged $1283.00/head and were also keenly sought after.

The Mosely's continue to contribute the success of their ram sales to their Rangeland Ready policy of presenting unpampered White Dorpers that have never been shorn, hoof trimmed or grain fed and solely raised on grass on the Cobar Rangelands.

The Etiwanda commercial ewe sale involved an outstanding lineup of quality White Dorper cross ewes and was supported by breeders from Broken Hill, Tilpa, Nyngan, Wellington, and Ganmain.

A total of 1384 commercial ewes sold and averaged $193.85 per head. It was the best quality line up of commercial White Dorper ewes offered by Landmark to date.

The sale was a team effort, with all members of The Mosely Family, Luke Carter, Emma Manns and the Landmark Russell team from Cobar working hard prior to the event to produce a professional and impressive sale. David Russell from Landmark Russell Cobar was the auctioneer on the day.
